AREA OVERVIEW

Aiken is the largest city in the county seat of Aiken County, which has a population of 165,829 as of 2015. With Augusta, Georgia, Aiken is one of the two largest cities of the Central Savannah River Area, a trading and marketing region in the states of Georgia and South Carolina, spanning thirteen counties in Georgia and five in South Carolina. Aiken is part of the Augusta-Richmond County Metropolitan Statistical Area, which is home to over one-half of a million residents.

The economic strength of Aiken and Aiken County lies in the ability to change with the times and to embrace a global marketplace. Many advanced business and industries call the Aiken area home. Savannah River Nuclear Solutions, LLC, the largest employer in Aiken County and one of the largest in South Carolina, plays a major role in the area's economy at the Savannah River Site, which also includes the Savannah River National Laboratory. Several other large employers in the area, including Kimberly-Clark Corporation and Bridgestone, have invested heavily in Aiken County and contribute significantly to the area's economic prosperity.

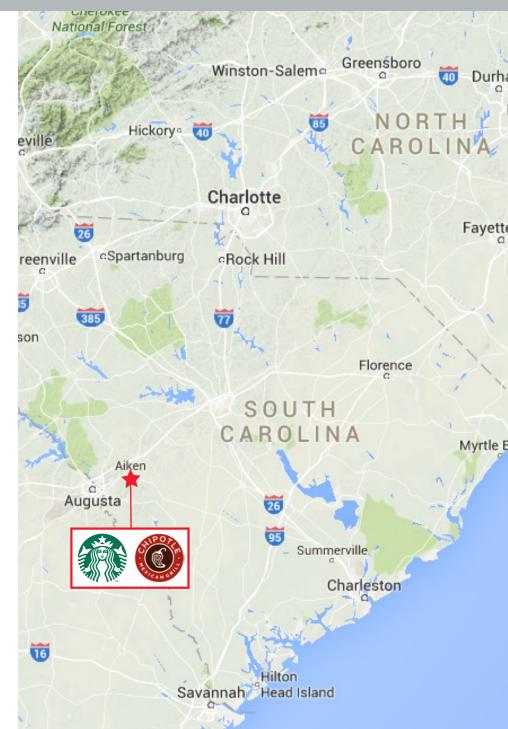

- The Savannah River Site (SRS) is a nuclear reservation located on land in Aiken, Allendale, and Barnwell Counties. The site was built during the 1950s to refine nuclear materials for deployment in nuclear weapons. SRS is also home to the Savannah River National Laboratory and the USA's only operating radiochemical separations facility. In total, the facility contains five production reactors, fuel fabrication facilities, a research laboratory, heavy water production facilities, two fuel reprocessing facilities, and tritium recovery facilities.
- The Southside, the southern area of the city of Aiken and also the location of the subject property, strongly increased in development after the construction of the Savannah River Site. It now serves as the premiere shopping district in Aiken County, being the location of the Aiken Mall, multiple retail stores, and several restaurants. Two large residential communities, Houndslake Country Club and Woodside Plantation, have multiple golf courses within the communities. Many newcomers take up residence in either Houndslake or Woodside.
- » Aiken is home to Aiken Technical College and the University of South Carolina at Aiken. USC Aiken has ranked in the top three public baccalaureate colleges in the South by U.S. News & World Report's quide "America's Best Colleges" for 18 consecutive years.
- » Aiken was recognized with the All-America City Award in 1997 by the National Civic League.
- The Aiken Steeplechase Association, founded in 1930, hosts the Imperial Cup each March and the Holiday Cup in October, both of which are steeplechase races sanctioned by the National Steeplechase Association. This event shows attendances of more than 30,000 spectators.
