Property Overview

Adjacent to Mill Creek Park, a two story, 54,000 square foot former school on Arlington Heights Rd. is available for sale. The property is currently used as a school and religious institution. However, the 3.76 acre site can potentially be redeveloped as a residential subdivision. Under the current zoning, up to 22 single family lots can be created on the site. The property is located a short drive away from the intersection of Dundee and Arlington Heights Rd. The surrounding properties are a mix of multi-family and single family buildings.

Buffalo Grove is an affluent community in the northwest suburbs of Chicago. There are a number of places for shopping and dining around Dundee and Arlington Heights Rd.
