Features

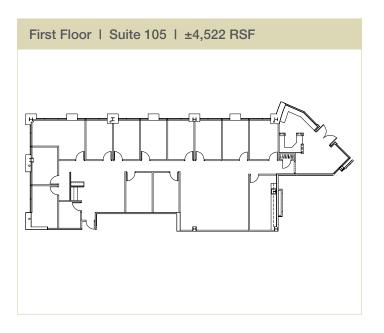

The 1925 Building sets a new standard for class A office space in the Sunset Corridor. The four story L-shaped building combines classic and contemporary elements to create a business environment in which tenants enjoy solid quality and technical innovation. The 95,386 square foot building can accommodate large or small tenants through rectangularly-shaped relatively column-free space. You'll be surrounded by acres of award-winning landscaping and convenient parking at an ample 4.1/1000 ratio for tenants and visitors. The 1925 Building is located at the corner of Cornell Road and AmberGlen Parkway, offering high visibility from Cornell Road and ease of access from Highway 26.
