site

Wicker Park / Bucktown

1958 W. North Avenue is located at the heart of Chicago's creative epicenter. Unparalleled boutique shopping, esoteric book stores, numerous art galleries, craft cocktails and independent clothing designers make Wicker Park / Bucktown one of the best areas to sip & shop in the country.

Wicker Park / Bucktown has become a prevailing influence on Chicago's Michelin-rated dining scene with restaurants such as Trencherman, Feast, Taxim, Enso Sushi and Big Star. The area is also known for its nightlife hotspots including The Revel Room, Crocodile, Link's Taproom, renowned brewery Piece and mixology tour de force Violet Hour.

The neighborhood's most enduring quality is its shopping. Along Damen, Milwaukee and North there is an unbelievable mix of vintage shops, independently owned boutiques, nationally recognized designers, fashion industry icons and major retailers. Recent entries to the market include Stilo, Gant, Timbuk2 and TOMS.
