AREA OVERVIEW

- Oakland is the 8th largest city in California with a population of over 425,000.
- The city is bordered by 19 miles of coastline to the west and vast rolling hills to the east and is appreciated for its magnificent views of San Francisco and the Pacific Ocean.
- The Oakland International Airport serves over 13.5 million passengers annually and features 15 airlines offering nonstop service to over 60 worldwide destinations.
- The city is undergoing a major construction boom and cultural renaissance. Its emergent positive image has attracted numerous large-scale developments and the city has permitted approximately 10,000 new homes since 2016.
- National Geographic ranked Oakland one of the “Must See” destinations of the world, one of only four cities selected in the United States (2019). The city is popular for its art scene, nightlife, restaurants and diversity.
- Oakland is ranked #25 “Best Places for Business and Careers” in the country by Forbes (2018).
- The city has a thriving, diverse, and sustainable economy fueled by Professional, Scientific, and Tech Services; Healthcare and Social Assistance; and Educational Services.
