MARKET OVERVIEW

UPTOWN HOUSTON MARKET OVERVIEW

OVERVIEW

The subject site, located adjacent to the Tanglewood neighborhood, is one of the city's most sought after neighborhoods. It is near to the dynamic Galleria/Uptown District in Houston – the most international, ethnically diverse city in Texas. The Uptown District, successfully developed for commercial, retail and residential, provides opportunities for employees, shoppers, tourists and residents. The area is a prestigious setting for leading corporations, retailers, and fine hotels where the lifestyle – live, work and shop – is an environment that is more than nine to five. Over 200,000 people converge here daily in the prestigious office buildings, staying in luxurious hotels, dining in first-class restaurants and shopping in high-end boutiques and the world-famous Galleria.

OFFICE

Uptown is the 15th largest business district in the United States. With over 25.2 million square feet of office inventory, it is the third largest office sub-market in Houston. Stonelake Capital broke ground on their 207,202 square foot (sf), 15-story development and McNair Interests is expected to break ground later this year on their mixed-use development on the corner of Post Oak Boulevard at Richmond. The area is headquarters to some of the most prominent energy, financial, real estate and professional services companies in the world. Approximately 2,000 companies are located in Uptown, such as Aon, Apache, BBVA Compass Bank, Bechtel, BHP Billiton, Goldman Global Group, Inc., Hines, Landry's, Schlumberger and Williams.

RETAIL

With more than six million square feet of retail space and 1,000 stores, Uptown has distinguished itself as the city's elite destination for fashion and is considered the shopping mecca of the Southwest. The Galleria, a European-styled center, is the fourth largest retail complex in the United States and hosts more than 30 million visitors annually. In addition, Uptown has the largest number of couture retailers in the city including Versace, Yves Saint Laurent, Giorgio Armani as well as mainstream brands like Banana Republic, Brooks Brothers and Macy's.

HOSPITALITY & DINING

Visitors from all over the world can enjoy the area's high-quality, full service hotels. The area offers approximately 7,800 luxurious rooms in superior hotels such as J.W. Marriott, Omni, Hilton, The Houstonian and Landry's Five Star-The Post Oak. Visitors and residents alike are able to experience the area's sophisticated international cuisine in restaurants to include, among others, Pappas Bros. Steakhouse, Arcodo, Piatto, McCormick & Schmick, Morton's Season 52, Masraff's Olive & Fig, and The Capital Grill.

RESIDENTIAL

The area is experiencing booming residential growth as seen with Hanover's BLVD Place and Dinerstein's 40-story multi-family development, as well as the Pelican located on the northeast corner of Chimney Rock and San Felipe and the 17-story retirement condominium adjacent to the Second Baptist Church. The area already features some of the most luxurious residential developments in Houston, to name a few, Four Leaf Towers, Montebello, The Cosmopolitan, The Mark, Villa d'Este and Waterwall
