ABOUT CONCORD //

As the largest city in Contra Costa County with 129,000 residents, Concord has much to offer, from high quality housing, to shopping and recreational opportunities. Concord provides ready access to San Francisco, the Silicon Valley, the growing North Bay and Sacramento, as well as some of the world's leading universities. Concord is a retail shopping hub, with a lively downtown, great schools, and a vast array of recreational and entertainment possibilities.

- Major highways, public transit and a local airport enable business leaders to quickly travel anywhere while providing employees with multiple choices for getting to work. In addition to a convenient location adjacent to Interstate 680 and State Routes 4 and 242, Concord boasts two Bay Area Rapid Transit (BART) stations.

One of Concord's greatest advantages is that renting or buying a home is more affordable than in most other Bay Area cities. Housing in Concord is attainable and San Francisco is just 45 minutes away via BART.

Concord has an educated workforce, with 31 percent holding a bachelor's degree or higher. Overall, Concord's available workforce matches all skill levels, and the Workforce Development Board of Contra Costa County provides valuable education and training. The leading employers in Concord are John Muir Health, Wells Fargo, Fresenius, Bank of America and PG&E.
