Five Miles to Cincinnati Northern Kentucky International Airport

The Zalla Companies provide a full array of real estate services with a reputation built on performance, integrity and value for over 40 years. Our interests include the development of raw land for commercial and residential purposes, custom home building and commercial development of retail, office, and industrial facilities. In addition to development and construction we provide ongoing property management and a full service real estate brokerage to meet the needs of our clients.

The majority of our developments are in our home town area of Northern Kentucky with additional projects in Greater Cincinnati and Tampa Bay. We are proud of the deep and mutually beneficial relationships formed over the years with our tenants and business partners. They represent some of the largest companies in America, local and regional banks who provide capital for development projects, and a subcontractor and supplier network of professionals.
