

5 Park Street, Middlebury

Property Description

Beautifully renovated retail or office space in the Star Mill building. Located in the Frog Hollow section of downtown Middlebury, one of the most visited areas of town, this 1,640 SF space has long been home to Junebug, a secondhand clothing store focused on mother and child. The space includes a large open area, a large private office with glass wall (with the potential for a second large private office) as well as two other smaller offices. There is an ADA compliant bathroom and kitchenette also included. Tenant pays propane heat and electricity separately. The space is fully air conditioned. Call Duncan for more information.
