4th & Sable / 201-394 N. Dearborn Way, Aurora, Colorado

Aurora is located about 10 miles east of the capital city of Denver in the state of Colorado and shares its names with at least 20 other cities and towns throughout the United States. Its proximity to the well-known mountain range earned the city the nickname "Gateway to the Rockies" and parts of Aurora are situated more than 5,400 miles above sea level. It has no defined urban core or business district; however, it boasts a robust business directory and a healthy economy. The total land mass of Aurora is a little more than 142 square miles and the official borders of the city straddle three separate counties -- Adams County, Arapahoe County and Douglas County.

Amenities & Attractions:

Closest city to Colorado's Denver International Airport, which is about a 15-minute drive from the center of Aurora. Two public reservoirs -- Aurora and Cherry Creek reservoirs -- providing boating, sailing, fishing, swimming, bicycling and picnicking opportunities.

- Eighty parks and seven public golf courses maintained by the Parks and Open Space Department.
- More than 8,000 recreation programs offered annually by the Library & Recreation Services Department.
- Less than a one-hour drive to the Rocky Mountains.
- Outstanding ethnic dining opportunities with more than 80 ethnic restaurants and markets
