Cushman & Wakefield ("Broker") has been retained on an exclusive basis to market the property described herein ("Property"). Broker has been authorized by the Seller of the Property ("Seller") to prepare and distribute the enclosed information ("Material") for the purpose of soliciting offers to purchase from interested parties. More detailed financial, title and tenant lease information may be made available upon request following the mutual execution of a letter of intent or contract to purchase between the Seller and a prospective purchaser. You are invited to review this opportunity and make an offer to purchase based upon your analysis. If your offer results in the Seller choosing to open negotiations with you, you will be asked to provide financial references. The eventual purchaser will be chosen based upon an assessment of price, terms, ability to close the transaction and such other matters as the Seller deems appropriate.

The Material is intended solely for the purpose of soliciting expressions of interest from qualified investors for the acquisition of the Property. The Material is not to be copied and/or used for any other purpose or made available to any other person without the express written consent of Broker or Seller. The Material does not purport to be all-inclusive or to contain all of the information that a prospective buyer may require. The information contained in the Material has been obtained from the Seller and other sources and has not been verified by the Seller or its affiliates. The proforma is delivered only as an accommodation and neither the Seller, Broker, nor any of their respective affiliates, agents, representatives, employees, parents, subsidiaries, members, managers, partners, shareholders, directors, or officers, makes any representation or warranty regarding such pro forma. Purchaser must make its own investigation of the Property and any existing or available financing, and must independently confirm the accuracy of the projections contained in the proforma.

Seller reserves the right, for any reason, to withdraw the Property from the market. Seller has no obligation, express or implied, to accept any offer. Further, Seller has no obligation to sell the Property unless and until the Seller executes and delivers a signed agreement of purchase and sale on terms acceptable to the Seller, in its sole discretion. By submitting an offer, a purchaser will be deemed to have acknowledged the foregoing and agreed to release Seller and Broker from any liability with respect thereto.

Property walk-throughs are to be conducted by appointment only. Contact Broker for additional information.

AREA OVERVIEW

Folsom is a city in Sacramento County and is part of the Sacramento—Arden-Arcade—Roseville Metropolitan Statistical Area (MSA). Folsom is conveniently located 25 miles east of downtown Sacramento, 85 miles from Lake Tahoe, and 110 miles from San Francisco, with direct and convenient access to U.S. Highway 50, the Sacramento Regional Transit Light Rail System, Sacramento International Airport, and cargo operations at Mather Field Airport. Well known as a family-oriented community, Folsom has been recognized by Money Magazine, Newsweek, and Business Week as one of the best places in America to live, work, and play. Folsom is home to Folsom Lake and the surrounding Folsom Lake State Recreation Area, one of the most visited parks in the California Park system; approximately two million people visit the Folsom Lake State Recreation Area each year. The city is served by the Folsom Cordova Unified School District, one of the highest rated districts in the region, and is home to Folsom Lake Community College, one of the fastest growing colleges in the nation. Folsom has a strong and growing base of major employers, including Agilent Technologies, California ISO, Gekkeikan, Intel, Kaiser Permanente, Kikkoman, Mercy Hospital, Micron, Safe Credit Union, Toshiba, and VSP.

The Sacramento MSA has witnessed sustained and rapid growth for more than three decades and is now home to more than 2.4 million people, making it the fourth largest metropolitan region in California and the 18th largest in the U.S. Due to its close proximity to the Bay Area and Lake Tahoe, relatively low cost of living, and high-quality of life, the Sacramento MSA is poised for continued near and long-term growth. The Sacramento region serves as the capital of California and is home to many established and increasingly growing business sectors, with a strong economy supported in part by government, healthcare, and agriculture. In recent years, Sacramento has become a world-class tech community, with companies relocating to Sacramento to take advantage of its educated workforce and low cost of doing business without sacrificing quality of facilities and workforce skills. Due to its attractive business qualities, Sacramento experienced the fifth fastest private sector job growth rate among the top 25 U.S. MSAs. The growth has been accompanied by extensive development and renovation within the Sacramento region, including the construction of a multi-use sports and entertainment arena accompanied by 1.5 million square feet of office, retail, and residential developments.

- » Folsom has one of the lowest crime rates in California, has an extremely low unemployment rate (3.6%), and has a well-educated workforce, with 40% of residents having a bachelor's degree or higher.
- » Sacramento is the third fastest growing MSA in California, with a projected growth of 55.4% over the next 30 years.
- » Sacramento is expected to outpace the national average in job and population growth by more than double over the next ten years
- » The Sacramento region is a major transportation hub, served by air cargo airports, an international airport, a deep water shipping port, two major interstate freeways, freight and passenger rail lines, and an extensive regional commuter bus and light-rail system.
