ACCESSIBLE AND CONVENIENT

THE AREA

VISTA, CALIFORNIA

Located just seven miles inland from the Pacific Ocean in northern San Diego County, the City of Vista is approximately 19 square miles with a population of 101,797. Centrally located in the vibrant North County market, Vista takes advantage of its location - bordering the coast with major highways running through. A perfect, mild Mediterranean climate allows residents to enjoy a wide range of year-round outdoor activities with miles of hiking trails, lagoons and the nearby coastline.

- Located just 35 miles north of downtown San Diego and 54 miles south of the John Wayne Airport in Orange County with convenient public transit via the Sprinter commuter light rail train system.
- With one brewery for every 7,000 people, Vista has the most breweries per capita than any area in California.
- More than 31% of Vista's population is between the ages of 18 and 34 years, making it one of the most youthful areas in San Diego County, creating a young vibrant community.

FROM BOARDROOM TO COURTROOM

A group of four people are sitting around a wooden table in a restaurant, enjoying a meal. The setting is bright and airy, with large windows overlooking a cityscape. The group consists of two men and two women, all smiling and engaged in conversation. They are eating various dishes, including salads, a burger, and a bowl of rice. The atmosphere is casual and friendly. The text 'FROM COFFEE BREAK TO LUNCH BREAK' is overlaid on the bottom left of the image.

A photograph of a bar scene. In the foreground, a tall, elegant wine glass filled with white wine stands on a reflective surface. To its right, two large glasses of golden beer with thick white foam are visible. The background is a blurred street scene with people and buildings, suggesting an outdoor or semi-outdoor bar setting. A semi-transparent olive-green banner is overlaid on the bottom left of the image, containing the text.
